

What to do today

IMPORTANT! Parent or Carer – Read this page with your child and check that you are happy with what they have to do and with any weblinks or use of the Internet required.

NB You will need to keep your plan for your diary entry for tomorrow's lesson

1. Story time

Go to <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0esdaXtf0Yo&t=334s> and listen to a different reading of Diary of a Wombat.

- Which reading of the story did you like most?
- Give reasons as to why you prefer your choice.

2. Using conjunctions to join ideas

Read the set of Conjunctions.

- Now read the pairs of sentences on Wombat's Busy Day.
- Rewrite each pair of sentences as one full sentence with a conjunction linking the two parts. Check with the set of Possible Answers.

3. Planning to write a new story

Tomorrow, you are going to write the diary entry of an animal who causes all sorts of trouble for a family. Today you will plan your story.

- Decide which animal will feature in your story. Record this on My Animal Diary Planner.
- Decide which day of the week your diary entry will be for.
- Have fun thinking of the three things your animal does that cause big trouble for the family.
- Look at the Diary Suggestions for some ideas if you get stuck.

Now try this Fun-Time Extra

- Wombat gets into all sorts of trouble with the family. Maybe have a look with a grownup at some other naughty animals. E.g.

Wombat's Busy Day

- Rewrite each pair of sentences as one full sentence with a conjunction linking the two: In the morning I slept. At lunchtime I ate grass
Turns into: In the morning I slept but at lunchtime I ate grass.
- Watch out – your sentence has to make sense so you will need to choose your conjunction with care.
- Use a new conjunction each time.

In the morning I slept.

At lunchtime I ate grass.

I was banging on the dustbin.

The humans came running out of the house.

I liked my new hole.

It was warm and dry.

I chewed a nice big gap in the door.

Suddenly the family appeared, looking cross.
